DEMONSTRATIONS, CHICAGO
FREEDOM MOVEMENT (CFM) -
SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
RACIAL MATTER

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated
September 21, 1966.

[REDACTED] advised the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in the evening of September 23, 1966, that during the afternoon of this date, 12 pickets from the East Garfield Park Union to End Slums had picketed at the offices of Balin Realty, 21 North Pulaski Avenue, Chicago, protesting alleged slum and vermin infested conditions in buildings operated and managed by Balin on Chicago's West Side. The pickets had been led by Reverend William Briggs, Pastor of the Warren Avenue Congregational Church, 3101 West Warren Avenue, headquarters in Chicago of the SCLC. b7(D)

The East Garfield Park Union to End Slums is operated semi-independently as an arm of the CFM but was originally set up and organized under the sponsorship of the SCLC in early 1966 as part of its general anti-slum campaign here. [REDACTED] advised that the demonstration lasted from approximately 3:30 to 4:15 PM. Representatives of the pickets had entered the offices of Balin during the demonstration, and at 4:15 PM Mr. Balin requested police department officers on the scene to remove these individuals. When requested to leave the premises by the officers, the demonstrators complied and left with no disorder or disturbances.
There were no arrests during the course of the demonstration. b7(D)

[REDACTED] b7(D)
[REDACTED] advised during the evening of September 23, 1966, that during the afternoon of this date, Martin Luther King, Jr., together with six others named in the August 19, 1966, injunction limiting civil rights marches in Chicago, had filed a petition with Circuit Court Judge Cornelius Harrington. The petition had requested that a forthcoming request to dissolve this injunction should be heard by a judge other than Harrington, Harrington being charged with prejudice in this petition. The eighth party originally named in the injunction is presently incarcerated in the House of Correction, Chicago, for violation of the provisions of the injunction and did not sign the petition. Harrington agreed that the hearing on the forthcoming request to dissolve the injunction, expected to be formally filed during the coming week, would be assigned to another Circuit Court judge.

ENCLOSURE

[REDACTED]

On September 13, 1966, [REDACTED] Rentals, Logan International Airport, stated he has had fairly frequent contact with [REDACTED] but has no idea of how to locate him. He searched his records for a contract whereby [REDACTED] had been hired to take a car out of Boston for [REDACTED] Rentals but was unable to find a record.

On September 21, 1966, [REDACTED] advised that he had determined that [REDACTED] Rentals, John F. Kennedy Airport, New York City, New York, was fairly well acquainted with [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] frequent contact with that office. [REDACTED] does not know where [REDACTED] lives but can contact him through a phone number in Indianapolis, Indiana, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that from his contact with [REDACTED] he has found him to be a big talker who likes to hear himself talk. He transports cars at a much lower rate than other jockeys and has on several occasions presented [REDACTED] with small gifts.

On September 21, 1966, [REDACTED] Massachusetts State Police, advised that although his office at Logan International Airport had no record of it; he recalled being told that [REDACTED] had been questioned on his arrival at the airport with the [REDACTED] Rentals car in question concerning personal belongings he reportedly stole from some riders he abandoned in Kansas City, Missouri. [REDACTED] had claimed he left the property in the custody of another person in Kansas City and since his story checked out nothing came of the matter. [REDACTED] was not arrested and no record was made.

PROPOSED VISIT OF MARTIN LUTHER KING
TO CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA,
SEPTEMBER 20-21, 1966
RACIAL MATTERS (KLAN)

Reference is made to memorandum at Charlotte,
North Carolina, dated September 15, 1966, captioned as above.

On September 20, 1966, [redacted] advised [redacted] arrangements for KING's appearance [redacted] and had been advised KING would arrive by chartered plane approximately 6 to 6:30 P.M., September 21, 1966.

[redacted] KING would be accompanied by Mr. HOSEA WILLIAMS and two other individuals, not identified but believed to be bodyguards of KING's.

[redacted] stated KING would be met at the Charlotte Airport by Dr. REGINALD A. HAWKINS and would be transported to the gymnasium of Johnson C. Smith University in Dr. HAWKINS' Cadillac which would be driven by police officer COSTEN. It was believed only KING, HAWKINS, Officer COSTEN and a Dr. GAY WILMORE of New York City would be in the vehicle on the trip to and from the airport.

PROPOSED VISIT OF MARTIN LUTHER KING
TO CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA,
SEPTEMBER 20-21, 1966

"The Observer Dispatch," a daily Charlotte, North Carolina, newspaper, in its issue of September 20, 1966, under the caption "King Won't March Here" furnished the following:

"Martin Luther King Jr. will not lead any demonstrations when he comes to Charlotte Wednesday for a talk at Johnson C. Smith University, according to his Atlanta, Ga., office.

"A spokesman for King at the Southern Christian Leadership Conference headquarters said that he will arrive in Charlotte just in time for his speech and depart shortly after he delivers it.

"King is scheduled to speak on 'The United Presbyterian Mission in the Southeast' at 8 p.m. in the university gymnasium. The public is invited.

"His talk will highlight a three-day meeting, beginning today at Queen Charlotte hotel, of the United Presbyterian Commission on Religion and Race."

On September 21, 1966, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] b7(D)
[REDACTED] advised that MARTIN LUTHER KING arrived at the Charlotte, North Carolina, Airport at 7:45 P.M. by chartered plane. KING was accompanied by six persons including one Negro female who appeared to be his wife. KING was transported to Johnson C. Smith University by an officer of the Charlotte Police Department and upon completion of his speech, was immediately returned to the airport with his plane departing the Charlotte Airport at 10:50 P.M., September 21, 1966. During KING's entire time in Charlotte, there was no evidence of any demonstrations by members of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA), or other racially inspired groups.

"The Observer Dispatch," a daily Charlotte, North Carolina, newspaper, in its edition of September 22, 1966, listed, among other information, the following items which are quoted:

"About 60 regular policemen-plus reserve policemen-were assigned to various phases of King's visit.

"Police Chief John Ingersoll was there, in plain clothes, and two assistant chiefs. A 60-man riot squad was ready to be assembled in less than 30 minutes, if needed.

"More Negro policemen were assigned to help guard King than would otherwise have been used-14 in all, four of them trained in riot control.

"During the introductions to Dr. King's speech, the police department received a crank telephone call threatening King's assassination in the auditorium. A similar telephone threat had been received earlier in the day. Maj. Harkey reassigned a few men, strengthening the guard inside the auditorium. About ten policemen, not counting plain-clothesmen, watching the audience.

PROPOSED VISIT OF MARTIN LUTHER KING
TO CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA,
SEPTEMBER 20-21, 1966

"After his speech, King immediately left JCS for the airport, walking out the back door between two lines of policemen holding hands. The two motorcycles, the patrol car and the three unmarked cars escorted the Cadillac fast and circuitously across town, wailing and blinking at every intersection, down Tuckaseegee, through Westerly Hills, along Old Steele Creek Road and out West Boulevard to the Airport."

"The Observer Dispatch" referred to above, in the same issue, gave the following information:

"King's address to an audience of almost 5,000 people inside and outside Johnson C. Smith University gymnasium came at the invitation of the United Presbyterian Church's Commission on Religion and Race meeting here this week. U.S.A

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UNITED KLANS)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute, and the United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, the Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

On August 14, 1961, the second source advised that the organization formerly known as United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., would be known in the future as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The second source said the name was changed by a resolution adopted at the National Klonvocation held July 8, 1961, at Indian Springs, Georgia.

The second source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, a majority of the klaverns of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NORTH CAROLINA)
(UKA)

On August 17, 1964, a source advised that the North Carolina organization of United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, became affiliated with the national organization of the same group in the spring of 1961. The State Headquarters was at the residence of North Carolina Grand Dragon JAMES ROBERTSON JONES, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, who is subordinate to the national organization with headquarters in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The organization in North Carolina has the same aims and objectives as the parent group; that is, advocacy of segregation of the races and white supremacy.

On August 17, 1966, the same source advised that the status, leadership, and affiliation of the North Carolina organization have not changed. The State Headquarters is still located at Granite Quarry, North Carolina, but is no longer maintained at the residence of Grand Dragon JAMES ROBERTSON JONES.

King's Visit Keeps Police Force Busy

By J.A.C. DUNN
Observer Staff Writer

Martin Luther King got into town and out again, and that was all the police cared about.

The famous need protection in public, but King needs it more than many VIPs. Charlotte police started preparing for King's visit two weeks ago, conferring with Johnson C. Smith officials, Queen Charlotte hotel officials, airport officials, and among themselves, making plans and alternate plans.

Until 1 p.m. Wednesday, the police did not know when King would arrive. Even then, Major Sam Harkey, commanding King's police shepherds, knew only that King would fly into Charlotte at about 6 p.m. This information was carefully guarded.

At 3 p.m. three men were stationed at the Queen Charlotte Hotel, where King was expected to hold a press conference at 7.

Shortly before 6, nine uniformed policemen, two of them on motorcycles, a patrol car and six plainclothesmen in three unmarked cars gathered at the east concourse of the airport.

They waited for an hour and a half, because King's chartered plane was delayed by mechanical troubles on the ground in Atlanta.

But nobody knew that at the time. In fact, nobody even knew what kind of plane King's party was flying in, its number, or what time he was expected to leave Atlanta. Some of the guard detail weren't even sure where he was coming from.

At 6:45 about 35 policemen, some in plainclothes, started to take stations in and around the gymnasium at Johnson C. Smith.

While the police escort waited at the airport, two young men walked up to the east concourse, one of them carrying a small suitcase, announced themselves as Davidson College students, and asked if they could take pictures of King when he landed. They were sent away.

Later another young man arrived with colored portrait photographs of King, which he wanted autographed. He too was sent away.

Shortly after 7, the airport control tower contacted all incoming planes, but could not find King's plane. This indicated that King was still at least 50 miles from Charlotte, beyond radio range. But a blue and white twin-engine Cessna arrived unexpectedly only a few minutes later, and King was whisked away in a Cadillac driven by an enormous policeman named Costner, escorted by the motorcycles and the cars.

West Boulevard ... Wilkinson Boulevard ... Morehead Street ... Summit ... Trade ... to the JCS campus, every gate of which was guarded, some by two or three policemen. Police reserves were used, and one rather tipsy man wandering down Beatties Ford Road remarked in awe that this must be the biggest crowd Biddleville had ever seen.

About 60 regular policemen—plus reserve policemen—were assigned to various phases of King's visit.

Police Chief John Ingersoll was there, in plain clothes, and two assistant chiefs. A 60-man riot squad was ready to be assembled in less than 30 minutes, if needed.

More Negro policemen were assigned to help guard King than would otherwise have been used—14 in all, four of them trained in riot control.

During the introductions to Dr. King's speech, the police department received a crank telephone call threatening King's assassination in the auditorium. A similar telephone threat had been received earlier in the day. Maj. Harkey reassigned a few men, strengthening the guard inside the auditorium. About ten policemen, not counting plainclothesmen, watching the audience.

After his speech, King immediately left JCS for the airport, walking out the back door between two lines of policemen holding hands. The two motorcycles, the patrol car and the three unmarked cars escorted the Cadillac fast and circuitously across town, wailing and blinking at every intersection, down Tuckaseegee, through Westerly Hills, along Old Steele Creek Road and out West Boulevard to the Airport.

The plane was not ready. King walked through the airport accompanied by five policemen and two plainclothesmen, and made a telephone call from a telephone booth. His suit was rumpled, and he seemed tired.

The plane was ready. King and three companions climbed in and the engines revved. It taxied away, followed by the assistant airport manager in a radio car. The police stood waiting a few minutes until it took off.

The plane droned away into the night toward Atlanta, and the policemen left in a little caravan of their own, talking about getting some supper.

SPEAKS AT SMITH King Calls

For Use Of 'Striped Power'

Says Whites, Negroes Side By Side Is Goal

By EARL LAWRENCE
Observer Staff Writer

"Striped power — black and white side by side."

To that end Martin Luther King Jr. pledged himself Wednesday night, "even if I should be the last Negro on earth who refuses to condone violence."

King's address to an audience of almost 5,000 people inside and outside Johnson C. Smith University gymnasium came at the invitation of the United Presbyterian Church's Commission on Religion and Race meeting here this week.

King singled out racial integration and poverty as "the two greatest problems facing America today."

He referred often to "that other America" in which "our 22 million Negroes live in the triple ghetto of race, poverty and human misery."

"More than 40 per cent of our people live in inadequate houses with wall-to-wall rats and roaches," he said.

And with a slightly trembling voice he despaired for Negro children:

"Any society that will destroy and rob little children of their selfhood, keeping them in overcrowded and inadequate schools, stamping them with the badge of inferiority, is revolting against the Kingdom of God itself."

"The problems of racial integration and poverty are moral issues," King said. "And, as the chief moral guardian of the community, the church must take the lead."

Referring to theologian Paul Tillich's definition that "sin is separation," he called segregation "an existential affirmation of man's tragic estrangement from man."

"The ultimate logic of racism is genocide," King said. "If a man says I am not good enough to eat at a lunch counter with him, or live beside him, he is saying in substance that I deserve to be dead and non-existent."

Referring to the New Testament parable of Dives and Lazarus, King commented, "Dives went to hell not because he was rich but because he sought to be a conscientious objector in the war on poverty."

"There is nothing new about poverty."

King said poverty was the spawning ground of many of the frustrations leading to racial unrest. He was greeted with the audience's loudest and most prolonged applause when he charged "too many forces in our nation are more concerned about winning the war in Vietnam than right here."

Calling for more money for the antipoverty war, he chided the U.S. space program and "the billions to put a man on the moon" as creating a society where "we end up with guided missiles and misguided men."

"But I still believe nonviolence is the most portentous weapon."

See KING, Pg. 4C, C. 1

on available to the Negro in the struggle for human dignity," the head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) said.

"But I am not a consensus leader — I don't decide what is right or wrong by taking a Gallup poll of what people think. I am not a searcher for consensus but a model of consensus."

Nonviolence, King said, "ultimately exposes our opponent, weakens his morale and works on his conscience."

"The Negro needs the white man to save him from his fear, and the white man needs the Negro to save him from his guilt," he added.

"Black and white together, we shall overcome."

MUHAMMAD'S MOSQUE NUMBER 36
CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

On May 8, 1962, a source advised that during the summer of 1960 a group of Muslims organized a Temple of Islam in Charlotte, North Carolina.

On May 21, 1964, a second source advised that the Charlotte Temple of Islam was then referred to as Muhammad's Mosque Number 36.

This second source stated on May 6, 1966, that all meetings and activities of this Mosque are directly related to and follow the teachings of ELIJAH MUHAMMAD of Chicago, Illinois, the world leader of the Nation of Islam.

NATION OF ISLAM

In January, 1957, a source advised that Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On April 29, 1966, a second source advised that Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, The Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised that Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised that Muhammad had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

"The Dallas Morning News" for September 12, 1966, contained a news item stating Dr. Martin Luther King would be one of ten "outsiders" who would have prominent speaking roles at the International assembly of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) in Dallas, September 23-28, 1966. It was stated Dr. King is one of four Baptists, two Roman Catholics, one Orthodox, and three Methodists on the program. King's speech will be on "The Churches and the Struggle for Human Freedom, Dignity, and Brotherhood", September 25, 1966.

[REDACTED] b7(D)
[REDACTED] advised the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that Dr. King plans to arrive at Love Field in Dallas on Delta Flight 827 at 5:05 p.m., Sunday, September 25, 1966. He will hold a press conference at Love Field immediately after his arrival, and will then be taken directly to the Dallas Memorial Auditorium to speak, until approximately 11:00 p.m. He will spend that night at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, and will leave Dallas from Love Field, via Delta Flight 820, at 7:00 a.m., September 26, 1966.

[REDACTED] said the above itinerary had been furnished b7(c)

PROPOSED VISIT OF MARTIN LUTHER KING
TO CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA,
SEPTEMBER 20-21, 1966

[REDACTED] who is familiar with Klan activities in the Charlotte area, stated that according to information received, there had been only a very little talk among Klansmen about the visit of KING, and no information had been received indicating that any plans were being formulated for Klan demonstrations during the proposed visit of MARTIN LUTHER KING.

b7(D)

[REDACTED] advised that no information had been received [REDACTED] indicating that members of the Klan or other organizations were contemplating any demonstrations as a result of the proposed visit of MARTIN LUTHER KING to Charlotte, North Carolina, on September 20-21, 1966.

b7(D)

[REDACTED] advised that according to information which he had received from [REDACTED] MARTIN LUTHER KING was scheduled to appear in Charlotte, North Carolina, for a speaking engagement on September 20, 1966. [REDACTED] stated that the plans, according to the information which he had received, called for MARTIN LUTHER KING to fulfill a speaking engagement in the auditorium of the Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, North Carolina.

b7(D)

[REDACTED] further advised that he had received no indication concerning MARTIN LUTHER KING's itinerary, length of stay in Charlotte, North Carolina, or the nature of his remarks during his appearance in Charlotte.

PROPOSED VISIT OF MARTIN LUTHER KING
TO CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA,
SEPTEMBER 20-21, 1966

[REDACTED] stated that he would probably receive additional information at a later date concerning KING's visit. b7(D)

On September 15, 1966, the foregoing information was furnished to [REDACTED] United States Secret Service, and to [REDACTED] 111th Intelligence Corps Group, both Charlotte, North Carolina, and to [REDACTED] Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, Police Department, Charlotte, North Carolina, and to [REDACTED] North Carolina State Bureau of Investigation, Raleigh, North Carolina. b7(C)

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UNITED KLANS)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute, and the United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, the Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

On August 14, 1961, the second source advised that the organization formerly known as United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., would be known in the future as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The second source said the name was changed by a resolution adopted at the National Klonvocation held July 8, 1961, at Indian Springs, Georgia.

The second source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, a majority of the klaverns of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NORTH CAROLINA)
(UNITED KLANS)

On August 17, 1964, a source advised that the North Carolina organization of United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, became affiliated with the national organization of the same group in the spring of 1961. The State Headquarters are at the residence of North Carolina Grand Dragon JAMES ROBERTSON JONES, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, who is subordinate to the national organization with headquarters in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The organization in North Carolina has the same aims and objectives as the parent group; that is, advocacy of segregation of the races and white supremacy.

On August 4, 1965, the same source advised that the status, leadership, and affiliation of the North Carolina organization have not changed.

Re: Communist Infiltration of

On September 20, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison was in contact with Rachel (Rachel DuBois, representative of Project Dialogue, SCLC) on that date.

They discussed a foundation which is being set up or was recently formed by the SCLC and in that regard, Levison said he was going to Chicago on Monday, September 26, 1966, to handle legal papers concerning the foundation. He said he would be there from Monday through Wednesday.

Levison and Rachel also discussed two articles which were reported in "The New York Times" on September 19, 20, 1966, dealing with the civil rights movement.

Levison said the articles were a disgrace because they quoted certain people as saying the liberal support for the civil rights movement was decreasing due to their disenchantment with the recent riots. One of the people with whom Levison disagreed was one Rabbi Sigmund (Phonetic).

Re: Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership
Conference, SCLC
Internal Security - C

In doing so, Levison said the Rabbi had absolutely no knowledge concerning the civil rights movement. Levison said he felt "they" were witnessing a propoganda drive to drive away white liberals from the civil rights movement.

The same source also furnished information on September 21, 1966, which indicated a contact between Stanley Levison and Martin Luther King, President of the SCLC, on that date. Their conversation, according to the source, concerned financial matters relating to the SCLC. In that regard, they considered ways to increase their efforts in fund raising activities such as benefits and freedom rallies.

Levison maintained that CORE (The Congress of Racial Equality) had formerly attracted many performers to benefits, but were now unable to attract them, and recommended that the SCLC move into this area to pick up the "sure-fire money" that is available. King said the SCLC should seek the services of one person to concentrate in the fund-raising area, outside of mailings, and give him the authority to coordinate benefits, freedom rallies as well as to find a way to get to the Negro community to raise money. King said he still "feels the money is there and it's just that we have not mobilized to get it." Levison agreed and pointed out that he had been told by a fund-raiser for the Legal Defense Fund, which has a highly paid professional staff, that they have been able to build up over the years in Chicago, contributions from Negroes of $70,000, including 17 pledges of $1,000 per year.

Levison said in order to put some "flesh and blood" into the foundation, he was going to Chicago on Tuesday, September 27, 1966, to see Chauncey (Chauncey Eskridge, Chicago attorney). Levison said Chauncey has a fund-raiser named Feldstein (Phonetic) who wants to discuss doing the job for the

Southern Christian Leadership
Conference, SCLC
Internal Security - C

foundation. Levison told King nothing could be lost by discussing with Feldstein a professional arrangement whereby he could approach foundations with his remuneration to be based on a reasonable contingent basis. Levison told King that he thought they (SCLC) should get "that foundation" formalized (the Chicago one). S

King inquired if Levison had heard anything about yesterday's meeting concerning Congressman Adam Clayton Powell (a meeting of Negro leaders in New York City, who oppose Powell's removal as Chairman of the House Committee on Education and Labor). Levison said he read in last night's paper that Powell was going to compromise with those who want to strip him of his position. King said he had not yet issued a statement on the Powell matter. Levison advised him to sit it out if at all possible. S

Their conference ended on a note that King would not be in Chicago until Thursday of next week, thereby preventing him from seeing Levison. S leaders of this community. The Chicago Police Department anticipates no problems in connection with this appearance on the part of King.

[REDACTED] advised on September 17, 1966, that they had no information concerning the scheduled appearance the preceding evening of Dr. King at Marillac House.

[REDACTED] advised, however, that Dr. King was in Chicago at the present time and during the day of September 16, 1966, had appeared in court in Chicago where he had testified as a character witness for Al Ravy, Convenor Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, who was being tried on state charges of disorderly conduct and interfering with police officers during a civil rights rally held at Chicago in June, 1965. b7(D)

In connection with CFM activities on September 16, 1966,

[REDACTED] advised that approximately 15 to 28 pickets conducted a demonstration before the residence of Gilbert Balin, 8527 West Cermak Road in North Riverside from approximately 6:35 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. on this date. The pickets were led by the Reverend William Briggs, associated with the CFM, and approximately five to ten neighborhood spectators observed this demonstration. [REDACTED] advised that this demonstration took place in an orderly manner with no incidents or arrests. This picketing was protesting the alleged ownership by Balin of so-called slum tenement dwellings on Chicago's west side. b7(D)

[REDACTED] advised at 1 p.m. that a demonstration began in front of Saks Fifth Avenue, 669 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, at approximately 11 a.m. on this date. Some thirty to forty demonstrators were picketing outside the store here and were distributing leaflets critical of the store's management to deal with representatives of its employees in connection with labor-management relations. The leaflets additionally called for the support of all store employees in their fight to win union recognition and collective bargaining rights. The store customers were being asked by demonstrators not to patronize Saks Fifth Avenue. b7(D)

The above source advised at 4:30 p.m. that the group of demonstrators before Saks Fifth Avenue terminated their activities at 4 p.m. with no incidents or arrests throughout the affair. There was little or no spectator interest to this demonstration. No disturbances occurred and it concluded in an orderly fashion. Reverend Jesse Jackson, affiliated with the SCLC, was observed participating in this demonstration.

On September 17, 1966, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], advised that he had learned that Reverend William Briggs would again lead a picketing demonstration before the residence of Gilbert Balin in North Riverside. The demonstration would take place between the hours of 12:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. The demonstration again protesting against Balin allegedly being a slum landlord. b7(D)

[REDACTED] subsequently advised on September 17, 1966, that the picket demonstration at Balin's had taken place between 2p.m. - 3 p.m. on September 17, 1966, with approximately twenty individuals participating in the picketing. [REDACTED] advised that there were no incidents during this picketing and no arrests occurred.

In connection with the activities of Dr. King in Chicago, the "Chicago Tribune", a daily Chicago newspaper, edition of September 16, 1966, reflected that King appeared at a rally at 6034 South Princeton Avenue, the Greater Mount Hope Baptist Church, the evening of September 15, 1966. This article reflected that King revealed plans at the rally to make Chicago's Loop stores the target of future civil rights demonstrations in an effort to find more and better jobs for Negroes. The rising unemployment rate among Negroes prompts the CFM to begin its economic phase in Chicago. Another goal of the CFM will be to organize Negro employees of large stores into unions as a way of improving wages. "No buying" campaigns may also be utilized to help accomplish these objectives. "I'm going to march straight up Michigan Avenue and straight up State Street and organize every store in the city," Dr. King stated.

The Reverend James Bevel, aide to King, announced plans for a similar campaign in the Englewood area on Chicago's south side but advised that meetings with store owners would be held before any such campaign began in Englewood.

The September 19, 1966, edition of the "Chicago's American," a daily Chicago newspaper, contained an article concerning an appearance made by Dr. King before a rally held at the Greater Mount Hope Baptist Church on the evening of September 18, 1966. King directed his comments on this occasion to the question of urban renewal in the Englewood section of Chicago, announcing that he will meet soon with the Urban Renewal Commissioner to urge a halt in condemnation proceedings for the central Englewood project. The city plans to condemn some 600 housing units here, mostly single family homes owned by Negroes, to provide space for parking lots and a mall for the 63rd and Halsted Streets shopping district. King stated that he would ask the Commissioner to stop condemnation action until a Federal court suit challenging the project is settled. If no agreement could be reached to halt condemnation, King stated "We have no choice but to start a 'no buy' campaign throughout the Englewood shopping area."

On September 11, 1966, [redacted] advised that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., addressed a meeting held at the auditorium of the Montclair, New Jersey, High School, on September 11, 1966, to mark the retirement of Reverend C. D. Rice from the pastorate of Union Baptist Church, Montclair, New Jersey. The meeting lasted from approximately 3:30 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. From approximately 1 p.m. until 6 p.m., members of the organization known as Truth about Civil Turmoil (TACT) held a silent vigil with posters and American flags in a park area at Chestnut and Park Streets, Montclair, approximately 200 feet from the auditorium where King made his address. Representatives of TACT also distributed literature alleging communist influence in the civil rights movement and communist associations on the part of King. Approximately 150 persons participated in this demonstration by TACT. All activities were peaceful and orderly and no incidents occurred.

b7(D)

"The Star Ledger", September 12, 1966, page 1, published daily at Newark, New Jersey, stated that King had addressed an audience of 2,000 persons at Montclair High School on September 11, 1966, and had pledged to resist violence and to adhere to non-violence in his efforts in behalf of civil rights.

The above information was telephonically furnished to [redacted] 108th INTC Group, Newark, New Jersey, on September 11, 1966, by Special Agent [redacted]

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I want to tell you, I am deeply grateful we have an honest man as you at the helm of our most important organization of men.

I must say I am a sincere Christian grandmother, a member of First Baptist Church & I love people, so I am not planning any wrongs, riotings or any other thing.

But I cannot make my Baptist friends believe Martin Luther King is anything but a devoted Dr. of Divinity, serving the downtrodden colored people against the wicked whites.

I am liked by the peaceable colored women, they are against this Lawlessness too.

I am asking you to please send me a little note confirming the truth of King's affiliations & workings with the Communist organizations.

I am also a worker in our Republican womens Club & a registrar of voters. I also read Gerald L. K. Smith's complimentary writings of your devoted work.

May God bless you & all your helpers & protect you as I pray in all my prayers.

Sincerely & Lovingly

[REDACTED] that George Lincoln Rockwell spoke at an ANP rally in Marquette Park, Chicago, on August 21, 1966. Source stated he only had the opportunity to hear Rockwell speak for a short time. During this time Rockwell stated, "We are going to ship the damn Niggers back to Africa," and he also stated "Martin Luther King is a damn communist." Rockwell also referred to King as Martin Luther "Coon." Rockwell called for those present, especially the young people, to come to Chicago ANP Headquarters on the evening of August 21, 1966, to hear him speak further.

C [REDACTED] b(1)
[REDACTED] that he had learned that Robert Spate, Post Office Box 134, Wickcliffe, Ohio, a member of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, (NKKKK), had attended the National States Rights Party, (NSRP), rally, held in Marquette Park, Chicago, on August 21, 1966.

C [REDACTED] b(1)
[REDACTED] that Reverend Charles (Connie) Lynch, Organizer, for the NSRP will speak on the evening of August 24, 1966, at the Chicago Branch of the NSRP, 2237 North Western Avenue, Chicago.

Characterizations of the ANP, NSRP, and the NKKKK are contained in the appendix section of this memorandum.

[REDACTED] b7(D)
[REDACTED] advised on August 23, 1966, at 2:30 p.m., that 100 demonstrators had gathered at the Chicago Freedom Movement (CFM)-Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) Action Center, 3101 West Warren Boulevard, Chicago. It was anticipated they would not depart until 4 or 4:30 p.m., August 23, 1966.

[REDACTED] b7(C)
[REDACTED] b7(D)
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] on August 23, 1966, advised that a group of 120 demonstrators departed 3101 West Warren Boulevard, at that hour, by automobile escorted by the Chicago Police Department. The group arrived at Eggers Woods in the area of South Decring, Chicago, at 5:20 p.m. There were no incidents enroute but police dispersed small groups of from 15 to 20 white youths as they gathered in the vicinity of Eggers Woods. The demonstrators remained in the Woods during the rush hour and at 6:30 p.m. planned to begin a march through the adjacent community led by Reverend Jesse Jackson and Reverend James Bevel. b7(D)

[REDACTED] Cicero, Illinois, b7(D) advised he received a telegram August 23, 1966, from Chris Vidnejevich, ANP leader, Chicago, requesting permission to hold a white rally in the vicinity of the Cicero, Illinois town hall at twelve noon on August 27, 1966, to organize white people to defend homes and neighborhood against "Martin Luther King's Black Invasion". He stated the purpose was not to start violence, but only to advocate self-defense.
The request was to be presented to the Cicero City Council.

[REDACTED] also advised a telegram was sent to King advising of the possibility of violence if a march into Cicero were conducted, and a telegram was sent to Governor of Illinois, Otto Kerner, requesting the calling of the National Guard prior to any march in Cicero.

Cicero City officials and Cook County Sheriff Richard Ogilvie planned to hold a conference with Governor Kerner in Springfield, Illinois at 10 a.m. on August 24, 1966.

An anonymous telephone call was received in the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation during the afternoon of August 23, 1966, wherein it was stated that one [REDACTED] employed by the [REDACTED], Chicago, had stated he lived in Cicero and that when Negro groups march in Cicero he will be ready and will kill as many as he can.

[REDACTED] Illinois, white male, 5'7", 140 pounds, was determined to be in the employ of the [REDACTED]

Information regarding [REDACTED] was furnished to [REDACTED] of the Office of the Deputy Superintendent Conlisk, Chicago Police Department, and to [REDACTED] Cicero, Illinois Police Department.

[REDACTED] advised on August 23, 1966, that the ANP scheduled a demonstration for the City Hall, Chicago, at twelve noon August 24, 1966, to protest the failure of Chicago to effect the arrest of King. He also advised King was scheduled to address a student rally at 6401 South Sangamon, Chicago, to enlist student support in Chicago CFM activities.

At 8:20 p.m., the demonstrators returned to the cars and were escorted from the area by the Chicago Police Department. Counter-demonstrators tossed rocks at the departing vehicles but no demonstrators were injured.

Plans filed by the CFM with the Chicago Police Department on August 23, 1966, for a demonstration on August 24, 1966, included plans to assemble at Pasteur Park, West 53th Street and South Kostner, for a march in the area bounded by 5500 and 5900 South, between Kostner and South Pulaski. Prayer vigils were scheduled for Security Realtors, 5616 South Pulaski, and the Komenski Realtors, on West 55th Street, but no time was listed. The Chicago Police Department speculated that probably the marchers would begin to move at 6:30 p.m.

At a press conference, on August 23, 1966, Police Superintendent O. W. Wilson reported crimes in Chicago are up over 30% from a year ago and cited as the cause the large number of police assigned to demonstrations. He predicted a high crime rate will continue as police are so assigned.

[REDACTED] b7(D)

[REDACTED], advised that Martin Luther King addressed a student rally at 6401 South Sangamon in Chicago and he urged student support of CFM activities, stating he definitely plans to conduct a demonstration in Cicero, Illinois, on August 28, 1966. There were no incidents or arrests in connection with the appearance of King.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that ROCKWELL's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by ADOLF HITLER. He added that ROCKWELL is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

On September 16, 1965, the source advised that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL believes he has completed the first three phases in his struggle for power and is now into the fourth stage, to wit, the "attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses." The source stated ROCKWELL believes this because of his success in gaining a place on the ticket in the November, 1965, gubernatorial election in the State of Virginia.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

A source advised on November 14, 1960, that on that date a meeting was held in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of organizing a Chicago unit of the American Nazi Party (ANP) which maintains headquarters in Arlington, Virginia. GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL, National Commander, ANP, took charge of this meeting.

On May 22, 1966, MATTHIAS KOEHL, self-identified as lieutenant, ANP, Chicago, advised that the ANP in Chicago is to a degree autonomous although it remains subject to the final authority of GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL and ANP National Headquarters.

A second source advised on January 6, 1966, that the Chicago branch of the ANP is currently located at 1314 West Ohio Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A characterization of the national organization follows.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

A source advised on February 8, 1966, that the Chicago Branch of the National States Rights Party (NSRP) is located at the NSRP National Bookshop at 2237 North Western Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. The Chicago Branch of the NSRP was officially opened on December 29, 1965, when Dr. EDWARD R. FIELDS, National Director of the NSRP, spoke at a rally held at 2237 North Western Avenue, Chicago.

RAYMOND LEO SCHULTZ, an organizer for the Chicago Branch of the NSRP, resides at 2237 North Western Avenue, Chicago.

This source also advised that the National Office of the NSRP is located at Augusta, Georgia, and the Chicago Branch of the NSRP subscribes to the policies of the National Office of the NSRP. The NSRP believes that there should not be race mixing between whites and Negroes and that Negroes in the United States by conducting demonstrations and causing riots are causing a breakdown of law and order in the United States. The NSRP also believes that the Jewish people are financing many of the Negro demonstrations, and, therefore, the Jewish people are responsible for race mixing and the breakdown of law and order in the United States. The NSRP believes that the Jews and the Negroes should be exposed in their attempts to have integration between whites and Negroes.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, North Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many Klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of Klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue No. 19, dated June, 1960, of "The Thunderbolt" announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

Issue No. 69, dated July, 1965, of "The Thunderbolt" announced the address of the new headquarters of the NSRP as Post Office Box 184, Augusta, Georgia.

On August 4, 1965, a source advised that EDWARD R. FIELDS, the Information Director of the NSRP and Editor of "The Thunderbolt," is the individual who actually controls the NSRP.

Issue No. 72, dated November, 1965, of "The Thunderbolt" reflects Dr. EDWARD R. FIELDS to be National Director of the NSRP as well as Editor of "The Thunderbolt."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC.
(SECRET)

A source advised that on May 22, 1939, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the Klan's unity of effort and activities to establish a National Fund, and a National Secretary, and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Kyklos Klan, Texas.

This source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2-5, 1939, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

A second source advised in March, 1934, that several meetings of Klan groups were held during the period 1930 to 1933 in an effort to unite the Klan groups under a single leadership.

The organization was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1933, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order."

A third source advised in December, 1933, that the organization had issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-Foreign born.

The third source advised in August, 1934, that the organization has a headquarters in Tucker, Georgia, and the day-to-day operations are under the direction of JAMES R. VENABLE, Chairman.

On September 9, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Martin Luther King, President of the SCLC, was in contact with Stanley Levison on that date. The contact, according to the source, concerned the following matters:

Levison said George Wiley (former Associate Director of the Congress of Racial Equality), was interested in working for the SCLC, and, therefore, wanted to set a time when he could see King. King said he would have to see him in Chicago, Illinois, since he would not have time to see him while in New York City on Sunday (September 11, 1960). In the event Wiley and the SCLC can agree to terms, Wiley could work in Atlanta, King told Levison. King said such an arrangement would be quite satisfactory since they reorganized the administrative set-up in Atlanta.

In elaborating on the break-down of the SCLC, King said they have four divisions: Hosea Williams is the Southern Projects Director; Everol (Phonetic) is the Northern Projects Director; there is an Organizational Programs Division, which includes citizenship education, the affiliates, the departments, "Operation Birdbath", Operation Dialog, Economic Affairs, all of which are headed by Dorothy Cotton; and finally, Junius (Junius Briggs) is Director of the Fourth Division dealing with Administration, Public Relations, Office Staff, and the general flow of fund raising.

King said the SCLC also has a steering committee composed of seven people and the four division heads. This body, according to him, meets every Monday at 10:00 am to handle administrative matters. No expenditures, King said, can be made without the approval of the committee.

Levison told King he would like to get together with him for the purpose of considering a new book. Levison said he thought the time was right for one and would travel out to Chicago to discuss it with King. King said he would notify Levison as to when he should come out for that purpose.

Another matter considered was the resignation of Julian Bond from the Student NonViolent Coordinating Committee, SNCC. In that regard, King said Julian desired to work for the SCLC, but would have to wait for things to cool down. Bond, King remarked, preferred to wait rather than give the impression that he was deserting SNCC. Levison commented that King and the SCLC should be able to get the better civil rights people who are leaving other civil rights organizations.

In reference to the recent disturbance in Atlanta, King said SNCC was rejected by the Negroes. SNCC was told by Negroes that they did not like the slums, but preferred them over guns and violence.

In reply to a question from Levison as to whether King felt "Black Power" was waning in terms of a viable force, King answered affirmatively, commenting, however, that the press was keeping it alive and representing it to be more than it is.

Levison told about a recent conversation Clarence Jones had with Stokely Carmichael and as a result, Jones concluded that Carmichael was a very dangerous man. In fact, Jones, Levison added, described him as a black nationalist. King was of the opinion that Carmichael would serve a prison sentence as a consequence of the riot. He added that he did not agree with the charge of having incited a riot and in line with American jurisprudence he would say he is innocent until he is proven guilty. And in planning what he would say during a press conference that night, King said he should say just that if asked about Carmichael, King said he thought he could get away with such an answer for the time being but that Carmichael would eventually seek his support. Levison said if Carmichael should be convicted of inciting a riot, they would have to blame those forces which compelled the riot.

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On May 8, 1962, a source advised that during the summer of 1960 a group of Muslims organized a Temple of Islam in Charlotte, North Carolina.

On May 21, 1964, a second source advised that the Charlotte Temple of Islam was then referred to as Muhammad's Mosque Number 36.

This second source stated on May 6, 1966, that all meetings and activities of this Mosque are directly related to and follow the teachings of ELIJAH MUHAMMAD of Chicago, Illinois, the world leader of the Nation of Islam.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~NATION OF ISLAM

In January, 1957, a source advised that Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On April 29, 1966, a second source advised that Elijah Muhammad is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960 Muhammad and other NOI officials, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, The Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised that Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 2, 1966, a third source advised that Muhammad had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

POSSIBLE VIOLENCE DIRECTED AGAINST NEGRO STUDENTS, CAGE PARK HIGH SCHOOL,
SEPTEMBER, 1968
RACIAL MATTER

The "Chicago American", a local Chicago daily newspaper in its issue of August 26, 1968, contained an article entitled "To Martin Luther King From Negro Parents;" this article contained the text of a communication from parents of 150 Negro children to Martin Luther King.

The communication to Martin Luther King in effect was critical of marches of Martin Luther King's group into the all white Cage Park area of Chicago pointing out that on September 7, 1968, Negro school children will be required to travel through Cage Park area to attend the Cage Park High School and there was a possibility of retaliation against these Negro children as a result of the marches led by Martin Luther King.

The communication demanded that King announce a truce or moratorium on the marches in the Cage Park area before school begins or get the school board to change the boundaries back to what they used to be so the Negro children can go to their own schools instead of over in the Cage Park neighborhood.

The communication points out to King that it is now not even safe for adults to go down 53rd Street in broad day light. The communication points out that the people in the Cage Park area of Chicago are upset because of the marches and requested that King take that threat away and concentrate somewhere else so that the children can again walk freely into that neighborhood every day.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] that the Chicago Board of Education is quite aware of the potential for violence in the Cage Park area of Chicago where disturbances occurred recently as a result of marches into that area on the part of Martin Luther King's Chicago Freedom Movement, however, no specific information has been reported indicating any planned acts of violence. b7(D)

[REDACTED] advised the Chicago Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on August 31, 1968, that the Chicago Police Department was quite aware of the senseless in the Cage Park area of Chicago as a result of recent marches into that area by the Chicago Freedom Movement. However, he knew of no organized plans for violence at this time. [REDACTED] added that the Chicago Police Department plans to afford the area additional attention in order to preclude any violence. b7(C)

Your letter of September 7th, with enclosure, has been received.

With respect to your inquiries, information contained in the files of the FBI must be maintained as confidential in accordance with regulations of the Department of Justice. I trust you will understand the reason for this policy.

Karl Prussion assisted this Bureau by furnishing information on subversive activities from November, 1949, to July, 1958, during which time he was compensated; however, he was not a Special Agent. His personal ventures, his opinions and comments are strictly his own and the FBI is not in a position to comment on these in any way whatsoever.

Sincerely yours,

I am just an average American who works, pays his bills, tries to educate his children and does not worry about our country being able to survive. However, I was greatly disturbed by the attached publication. I want to know if some of the statements printed in this paper are true. Please give me the benefit of your knowledge by answering the following questions:

1. Did Martin Luther King attend the Highlander Folk School?
2. Was the Highlander Folk School a left wing or Communist front organization?

What left wing or Communist front organization did King belong to or accept aid from?

4. Was Karl Prussion a counterspy for the F. B. I. ?

I would very much appreciate an early reply to these questions.

MARTIN LUTHER KING....AT COMMUNIST TRAINING SCHOOL

The above picture was made by an employee of the State of Georgia, at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee during the Labor Day week-end of 1957. The photographer was sent to the Highlander Folk School by the Georgia Commission on Education. The Highlander Folk School was abolished by an act of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee at a later date because it was charged with being a subversive organization.

Those numbered in the picture are:

1. Martin Luther King, Jr., of the Montgomery boycott and the Birmingham riots. Karl Prussion, a counterspy for the FBI for twenty-two years, charges that Martin Luther King belongs to sixty Communist-front organizations — more than any Communist in the United States.
2. Abner W. Berry of the Central Committee of the Communist Party.
3. Aubrey Williams, President of the Southern Conference Education Fund, Inc., The Transmission Belt in the South for the Communist Party.
4. Myles Horton, Director of Highlander Folk School for Communist Training, Monteagle, Tennessee.

These "Four Horsemen" of racial agitation have brought tension, disturbance, strife and violence in their advancement of the Communist doctrine of "racial nationalism."

The Independent American - Nov. 25, 1963
New Orleans, La.

Quotation found on the back of the original photograph which indicates that three identified Communists, Anne and Carl Br. and James E. Dombrowski, were among the principal speakers, along with Martin Luther King, at the Sixth Annual Conference of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference at Birmingham, Alabama on September 25-28, 1962. In James Dombrowski's handwriting we note: "M. L. King, Jr., responding to Anne Braden's speech. In background, AB (Anne Braden), Carl Braden, JAD (James A. Dombrowski). The figures 6670 are evidently the State's document number, indicating the extent of the evidence found in Dombrowski's files. Anne and Carl Braden are identified Communists. Carl Braden was convicted of sedition under Kentucky laws, and is the publisher of the official newspaper of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, "The Southern Patriot."

Although Martin Luther King, Jr., piously claims no Red connections, the above picture may be well worth a thousand words of refutation of King's claims.

Not strangely since the records of the SCEF have been in the possession of the Louisiana authorities, racial agitation in the South has been reduced considerably. Responsible authorities informed THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN that the SCEF was probably one of the key centers for dissemination of literature connected with the various public demonstrations in which Martin Luther King has been a key figure.

FBI Dir. Hoover told Congress, 2/22/64: "The Communist Party is attempting to use the Negro movement, as it does everything else, to promote its own interest rather than the welfare of those to whom it directs its agitation & propaganda; (and) to exploit the militant forces of the Negro civil-rights movement. The old Communist principle still holds: 'Communism must be built with non-Communist hands.' We do know that the Communist influence does exist in the Negro movement & it is this influence which is vitally important. It can be the means through which large masses are caused to lose perspective on the issues involved and, without realizing it, succumb to the party's propaganda lures." Mr. Hoover wrote: 10/24/60: "If a Minister can be influenced to keep silent about the dangers of Communism, the party has gained." (Christianity Today)

What Was That About No Red Connections, Martin Luther King?

BY KENT COURTNEY, PUBLISHER

The Communist Party, U.S.A. has been put on the defensive in New Orleans as the result of the operation of the Louisiana Subversive Control Law.

Readers will recall that in the last issue of THE INDEPENDENT AMERICAN we carried a feature story concerning the raid made on October 4 by Louisiana State Police on the headquarters of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc.

The SCEF has been officially labeled as a Communist-front organization by two Congressional committees, and James A. Dombrowski, the Executive Director of the SCEF, was identified as a Communist before the Senate Sub-committee on Internal Security on March 18, 1954.

The raid on SCEF headquarters obtained for the State of Louisiana evidence concerning the activities of this Communist-the Subcommittee.

Dombrowski, acting for the SCEF, has attempted to regain possession of his files and records in both State and Federal Courts. He has entered suits to obtain injunctions preventing the copying of the evidence by the State Police and the Senate Committee.

Fortunately, the State Police and the investigators of the Louisiana Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities and the staff of the Senate Committee on Internal Security have had ample time, since October 4, to go through the evidence and make copies of pertinent portions.

The Louisiana anti-Communist committee held a hearing on November 8th, in which certain evidence was made part of the public domain. Below is the first publication of this particular evidence.

Above is shown Martin Luther King, the head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which has been in the forefront in racial and civil rights agitation, not only throughout the South but the nation. Below the photo is a reproduction of (See RED CONNECTIONS....Page 6 front organization. The material collected was first transported to a State Police warehouse in Baton Rouge. However, legal possession was transferred to the Senate Committee on Internal Security when the evidence was subpoenaed by Senator James O. Eastland of Mississippi, Chairman of 1966, a group of pickets appeared at the residence of Gilbert Balin, 8527 West Cermack Road, North Riverside, and demonstrated from 3:10 PM to 4:00 PM. The pickets, 24 of whom were Negro, were led by Reverend William Biggs, white, carried homemade signs which read: "Balin Slum Landlord" and "Balin Won't the residents of the area and they were orderly and left the area peacefully at about 4:00 PM. There were no arrests. b7(D)

"Twenty-five pickets, most of them Negroes, marched for an hour in front of Balin's North Riverside home, but Balin was not there. Residents in the area ignored the demonstrators.

"The pickets were led by the Rev. William Biggs, pastor of the Warren Av. Congregational Church, 3101 W. Warren, West Side headquarters for the Chicago Freedom Movement.

"The Tenants union recently signed a contract with the Condor & Costalis real estate firm, 2959 W. Jackson Blvd. The pact provides a grievance procedure for tenants and requires the firm to maintain and repair its West Side buildings.

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum of September 9, 1966, under the above caption, and that of "PICKETING DEMONSTRATION, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, BY TENANT ACTION COUNCIL (TAC), OLD TOWN GARMENT APARTMENTS, 1446 SEDGWICK STREET, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS; RACIAL MATTERS."

On September 8, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the CFM - SCLC was to hold a rally that evening at the Greater Mt. Hope Baptist Church, 6034 South Princeton Avenue, Chicago.

Martin Luther King, Jr., President, SCLC, was to be present at this meeting and was to explain to the others in attendance the details of the agreement made between the CFM and Chicago civic authorities, the agreement concerning open housing which had in turn caused the CFM to agree to terminate its civil rights marches into all-white neighborhoods.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised the Chicago Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Office during the late evening hours of September 8, 1966, that the civil rights rally held at Mt. Hope Baptist Church had commenced at approximately 8:00 p.m., and had ended at about 10:45 p.m. Martin Luther King, Jr. did not attend this rally and [redacted] advised he had no information that King at that time was in the Chicago area. [redacted] advised that Al Raby, Convener, Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, was one of the main speakers at the meeting, discussing the recent rent strike at the Old Town Garden Apartments and the sale on September 8, 1966, of these apartments, which had resulted in an end to this rent strike. [redacted] advised that there were no incidents or arrests during the course of this rally. b7(D)

The "Chicago Daily News," edition of September 9, 1966, contained an article relating to the September 8, 1966, rally at the Mt. Hope Baptist Church. This article reflected that one of the speakers at this meeting had been Reverend Andrew Young, Executive Director, SCIC, who had stated that the CFM would direct its energies toward three major fronts in the coming weeks. These so-called battle areas included that of de facto school segregation, unionization of low paid workers, and continued eradication of slum housing. Young stated that "direct action" methods would be used in all these areas.

Young had indicated that possibly demonstrations would be held at locations of stores and firms that refused to recognize unions formed by their respective employees. He singled Saks Fifth Avenue, 689 North Michigan Avenue, as one of these stores. Young noted that more than 100 of the firm's employees here had formed a union, but that Saks had refused to recognize or deal with this collective. Young stated that if Saks did not recognize this union by September 15 the employees would strike; however, he was not specific in the support which the CFM might supply. In the area of slum removal Young emphasized the importance of the use of rent strikes, stating that such activities would enjoy the full support of the CFM, this including the moving back of evicted people into their apartments.

On 9-6-66 King held a conference in New York City with his principal advisors, who have subversive backgrounds, where a letter was prepared over King's signature to Negro youths imploring Negroes to adhere to nonviolence. Participants were unable to agree on a final draft of the letter which is to be reworked for King's approval and allegedly to be read over the National Broadcasting Company on 9-12-66.

The Attorney General previously expressed an interest in this matter and pursuant to instructions from [redacted] Internal Security Section, New York and Atlanta were telephonically contacted 9-10-66 by Extra Duty Supervisor [redacted] and advised of the Attorney General's interest in this matter. New York and Atlanta were also requested to furnish any pertinent information developed regarding this matter immediately by telephone to the Bureau.

At 10 p.m. 9-11-66 Special Agent [redacted] of the New York Office called Special Agent [redacted] Extra Duty Supervisor, Domestic Intelligence Division, to advise that New York sources at the National Broadcasting Company Radio and Television could furnish no information concerning above letter. If information is later developed, it will be immediately furnished to the Bureau.

ACTION: None. For information.

APPENDIX A

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

Records of the Superior Court, Fulton County, Georgia, reflect this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute, and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc. merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is directed by Robert Shelton, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

Second source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Third source advised on August 4, 1965, that the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, is currently an active organization with Klaverns in several southern states. This source said that Robert W. Shelton is the Imperial Wizard of this organization, and was last elected to this position on September 5, 1964, at a National Klans Convention in Birmingham, Alabama. Source said the activity of the UKA is increasing and the national office remains in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

SECURITY MATTER - C

b(2) b7(D)

[REDACTED] advised that King held a conference on September 6, 1966, at New York City with several individuals including his principal advisors, Stanley Levison, Lawrence Reddick, Harry Wachtel, Bayard Rustin, and Clarence Jones, all of whom have subversive backgrounds.

The purpose of the conference was to consider an open letter Rustin prepared over King's signature to Negro youth imploring Negroes to adhere to nonviolence. Levison disagreed with a statement in the letter concerning funds for poor school children and jobs for youth. Levison said President Johnson had been asked "ninety times" for jobs but nothing had come of it. Levison said the time had come when King should threaten President Johnson that if no action is forthcoming by May, 1967, a march on Washington, D. C., would be organized.

Participants were unable to agree on a final draft of the letter. It will be reworked by Rustin for King's approval on September 11, 1966, and allegedly read over the National Broadcasting Company on September 12, 1966.

RECOMMENDATION:

That copies of the enclosure be forwarded by routing slip to The Honorable Marvin Watson, Special Assistant to the President; John Stewart, Legislative Assistant to the Vice President; The Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, Assistant Attorneys General Yeagley and Doar.

The following information was supplied by a confidential source of this Bureau who has furnished reliable information in the past.

Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, on September 6, 1966, conferred with several individuals including his principal advisors, Stanley Levison, Lawrence Reddick, Harry Wachtel, Bayard Rustin, and Clarence Jones.

The purpose of the discussion was to consider an open letter Rustin had prepared over King's signature for distribution to Negro youth. The letter implored Negroes to adhere to nonviolent practices to gain equality. King commented the letter should be aimed at white people as well, otherwise he would be called an "Uncle Tom."

Levison disagreed with a statement in the letter which pointed out that King on September 5, 1966, had wired President Johnson and urged he provide funds for poor school children and to create public works for youth needing meaningful employment. Levison said President Johnson had been asked "ninety times" for jobs but nothing had come of it. Therefore, the time had come when King should threaten President Johnson that if no action is forthcoming by May, 1967, a march on Washington would be organized.

Participants were unable to agree on a final draft of the letter. Rustin stated he would put the finishing touches on the letter for King's approval when King returns to New York City on September 11, 1966.

According to the source, the letter will be read on the National Broadcasting Company on September 12, 1966.
